

Food - The Yo! Way

Yo!China, India's leading chain of Chinese quick service restaurants, has yet again reinvented itself. Their guests will now be treated to a total makeover from the quick service restaurant format to a casual dine-in joint. You might feel that the restaurant is Fine Dine but no, it is new benchmarks in town for a trendy Chinese casual dine in. So now, you can delight your taste buds while savoring the fashionable ambience as well. Even the copy on the menu "Mao Says Wao" adds the hip, trendy and youthful feel to the brand.

The newly refurbished outlet at Satyam Cineplex, Janakpuri, is marked by a hip and stylish look. One meal experience at the restaurant is enough to establish that Yo!China HAS CHANGED; moving a step forward into being the best in the industry league. Not only is the new look comfortable and soothing, but also sets the mood for an array for mouth-watering food fare. At once, you know that it's a place for those college parties, a quite romantic dinner with your loved one, to celebrate birthdays and anniversaries.

To begin with, the starters in the menu entice you with is the wide range of new vegetarian and non-vegetarian offerings. You must try the spicy and tangy Tai Chi Chicken with tender chicken chunks that simply melt in your mouth. Yo!China, with this massive upgrade in the menu, also offers pork and fish delicacies like King Spare Ribs and Prawn Singtu. In addition, if you need assistance in deciding your order, please allow their expert chef to help you.

Yo! Wok Specials are other refreshing additions to the menu. If you are a health freak, you just cannot miss Chinese vegetables the Chef Style - broccoli, baby corn, black mushroom and pokchoy tossed with soya garlic and chilli oil. The show stealer in the seafood category, hands down, is the Sleeping Pomfret; cooked in your choice of sauce - Hot Garlic, Zyng Zyng or Malah Sauce.

Not just the food, but also the serving style has seen alterations as well. Clay pots and sizzlers add that extra zing to your food. Khao Suey, Burmese Yo!Special transform you to another level of Oriental Cuisine. These non-based preparations are served in traditional clay pots to enliven oriental flavour. Moreover, the best is that you can customize the dish according to your liking with assorted accompaniments. Apart from this, Yo!China also offers Kung Pao Mangolian clay pots.

The Yo!Special, Zyng Zyng Schezuan and Legendary Malah Sizzler, are a delightful sight in themselves. The sizzling sound appeals to your ears, taste buds while the first bite assures your order was surely no mistake!

And no meal is complete without a tantalizing dessert! Dig into a Snicker Sundae and you will know for yourself. This mega Sundae with layers of vanilla ice cream, chocolate brownie, exotic snicker chocolate topped with rich hot fudge sauce, is just the perfect end of a perfect meal that you wish for.

The new Yo!China offers an experience that lingers in your mind, enticing you to walk into the restaurant again and again. What's more is that the enchanting Yo!experience is the value offering in this segment..
